

Herefordshire ceramics type fabric series (Romano-British pottery found in Herefordshire)

reduced Severn Valley ware

Produced from the mid 1st up to the 4th century, but most common in the later 1st and 2nd century. Usually hard fired; a fine fabric deliberately reduced to a grey finish - occasionally this fabric has a brown core. Worcestershire fabric 12.1

©Woolhope Naturalists' Field Club, Herefordshire