

Decoration on post-medieval pottery found in Herefordshire

Bristol glazed

Introduced on stoneware in 1831, generally mid to late 19th century, can be brown washes to shoulder and neck of bottles

A thick shiny glaze in off-white and mustard brown. Vessels were often dipped vertically.

©Woolhope Naturalists' Field Club, Herefordshire