

Silver Jubilee of George V and Queen Mary – 6 May 1935 – Goodrich

The celebrations included a fancy-dress parade from the village to the cricket club ground where there were stalls and games. The donkey cart is standing at the Castle Lane crossroads.

This photograph was taken across the road from the vicarage.

The beacon on Coppet Hill

The former Jolly's shop is just to the right of the picture.

The stalls and amusements were on the Goodrich cricket club ground - you can see the large avenue of trees in the background.

The anchorman should have won the day, by rights.
