REPORTS

Too many to list recently, several of note however:-

Scheduled:

- 117    Rowe Ditch Part of this has been recently bulldozed away.
- 121    Titley Ring Work Difficult to find now due to repeated ploughing since 1914.
- 143    King Arthur's Cave Direction board disappeared. Fires often lit here, broken bottles, etc., etc.
- 144    Leominster Castle Moat Don't look for it, it has been built over after being excavated and found to be a moated medieval farmhouse.
- 48    Offa's Dyke Track been bulldozed through on the west of Rushock Hill, and on entry to Kennels Wood.

Unscheduled:

- U73    White Stone Apparently this was first a wayside cross and was turned into a milestone in 1700. Now rather worn.
- U77    Lower Lyde Long Barrow? 25ft high and 90ft long with trees on top. Could be a long barrow – any comments?
- U29    Wergins Stone Condition deteriorating rapidly. Overgrown by hedge and weeds. Base stone split.
- U77    Garway Hill Earthwork On path from Garway Hill PO to summit of Garway Hill. Rectangular area with rampart and fosse. Traces of 2 entries. Approx 170ft x 190ft.
- U80    Bredwardine Castle No. 2 Further downstream to Schedule One. Stone walls, banking for stream to give wet moat.

The above are just a sample of the reports that are coming in. I haven't mentioned all those which say "No change" for condition, although these will be more useful to determine the damage if any occurs.
