

Contents and List of Plates and Figures

Reprinted from the

TRANSACTIONS

of the

WOOLHOPE NATURALISTS' FIELD CLUB

VOLUME 67

2019

TABLE OF CONTENTS

	Page
Obituary: Muriel Tonkin 1918-2019	12
List of Officers and sub-committees 2019/20	14
Proceedings, 2019	16
Accounts, 2019	28
Editorial Message	29
Biographical Details of Contributors	30
Presidential Address 2019: The Wonder of Woolhope by Paul Olver	31
This address firstly explores the history of the association of the Club with the exciting new science of geology from its foundation as a field club in 1851. Developments in geology as it applies to Herefordshire are then explored.
‘The Club Oak’: death of a silent witness by Tom Wall	38
The Club visited Moccas Park in 2019 and found to its horror that the ‘Club Oak’ was dead. This article traces the history of the oak and the changes in the park during its lifetime.
100 years ago: Hereford in the aftermath of the Great War, 1918-9 by Howard Tomlinson	47
This article marks the centenary of the end of World War I in late 1918 and the changes to Herefordshire and its people in the following year, both social and political.
Cider making in eastern Herefordshire by Edward Peters	64
Many houses and cottages in Herefordshire still have their cider-making equipment, not all in situ , some as garden features. This article draws upon experience of 40 years of photographing their remains.
Bredwardine Bridge by John C. Eisel	71
In 2019 the Club visited Bredwardine, admiring the elegant bridge which has survived many damaging floods since it was completed in 1764. Its chequered history is explored.
An unaltered toll house near Lingen? – a rare survival by Harley Thomas	87
The Herefordshire countryside conceals many derelict cottages but some may have been more than just rural dwellings. A mystery building at a crossroads in Lingen parish is investigated.
The restoration of Moccas church in the nineteenth century by David Whitehead	92
This paper explores the history of Moccas church and the alterations made to it particularly in the 19th century.
The decline and fall of Butchers’ Row, Hereford by John C. Eisel	108
For the first time, this paper explores in detail the story of the clearance of Butchers’ Row from the centre of High Town, correcting errors of the past.

	Page
Recorders:
Archaeology, 2019 by Keith Ray	124
Botany, 2019 by Peter Garner and Stuart Hedley	148
Buildings, 2019 by Duncan James	150
Geology, 2019 by Moira Jenkins	169
Mycology, 2019 by Jo Weightman	179
Ornithology, 2019 by Rachel Jenkins	182
Weather Statistics, 2019 by Ian K Porter	190
Weather Summary, 2009 to 2019 by Ian K Porter	190
Book Reviews.....	191
Henry Matthews, Viscount Llandaff: The Unknown Home Secretary by Roger Ward.....	191
The Rare Plants of Herefordshire by Les Smith, Peter Garner and Mark Jannink.....	192
Heritage Apples by Caroline Ball.....	193
The Scudamores of Kentchurch and Holme Lacy by Heather Hurley.....	194
Index, 2019.....	196

Transactions Extra

Extra papers and illustrations which could not be included in the paper versions of the Transactions can be found in Transactions Extra, which is on the Club website <https://www.woolhopeclub.org.uk>.

LIST OF COLOURED PLATES

Presidential Address 2019: The Wonder of Woolhope by Paul Olver

- Plate 1.1 The 1867 draft design of the Woolhope Club badge showing geological structure of the Woolhope Dome ,a specimen collecting bag and hammer at the base and current design on the president's current medal of office
- 1.2 Colour-tinted postcard of Barrs Court Station, Hereford, early 1900s.
- 1.3 Cross section of the anticlinal Woolhope Dome showing the relationship between its geology and its scenery
- 1.4 View over the north-west of the Woolhope Dome showing the underlying anticlinal structure with its concentric 'circles' of limestone outcrops marked by the wooded areas
- 1.5 Geological map of the Woolhope Dome from the 1891 Transactions
- 1.6 A solitary rugose coral from the mid-Silurian Much Wenlock Limestone
- 1.7 The clear notch within the early Silurian Woolhope Limestone at Rudge End Quarry is a thin bentonite clay band which represents a degraded volcanic ash
- 1.8 Male ostracod Colymbosathon eplecticos from the Herefordshire Lagerstätte. False colour image showing the specimen from different viewpoints
- 1.9 View south-east over eastern edge of the Woolhope Dome, showing the twin wooded ridges of the Aymestry Limestone and the Much Wenlock Limestone

The Club Oak by Tom Wall

- Plate 2.1 The Club Oak in Moccas Park in early 1998
- 2.2 The Club Oak on the Club's visit in 2019

100 years ago by Howard Tomlinson

- Plate 3.1 Mrs Louisa Luard, the first female Mayor of Hereford, elected 1929

Bredwardine Bridge by John C. Eisel

- Plate 4.1 Bredwardine bridge looking upstream, June 2019
- 4.2 James Wathen's 1794 watercolour of Bredwardine bridge looking downstream towards the church

An unrecorded tollhouse by Harley Thomas

- Plate 5.1 1815 1st edition OS map by Thomas Budgen showing Old Shop, Lingen
- 5.2 Two modern views of the possible toll house at Old Shop, Lingen
- 5.3 1885 OS map of Old Shop, Lingen, showing the dwelling in plot 484
- 5.4 Bryant's 1835 map of Old Shop, seeming to show a toll house (or toll bar) on the Presteigne/Willey road

The restoration of Moccas church in the nineteenth century by David Whitehead

- Plate 6.1 St Michael's Church at Moccas, set in parkland, seen from the south
- 6.2 St Michael's from the south-east – a two-celled church with an apse
- 6.3 St Michael's sketched from the south-east in 1850 by Charles Walker
- 6.4 George Gilbert Scott junior's sketch plan showing the proposed rearrangement of the fittings (1870)
- 6.5 Scott's severe treatment of the apse. The window is by Hardman & Co. of Birmingham c.1871

- 6.6 The relatively large organ was provided by J.W. Walker & Sons but the setting is entirely by G.S. Scott junior. Structural work by Franklin and Sons of Deddington, Oxon; a decorative scheme by Charles Eamer Kempe

The decline and fall of Butchers' Row, Hereford by John C. Eisel

- Plate 7.1 The Old House, Hereford, the only survivor of Butchers' Row
7.2 James Wathen's sketch of Butchers' Row, dated 7 June 1798
7.3 Cooken Row, as sketched by James Wathen on 17 August 1797
7.4 John Varley's watercolour of the south side of Butchers' Row, painted in 1802
7.5 Watercolour by David Cox, painted from the same view-point as that by John Varley, dated 1815
7.6 A naïve drawing of Butchers' Row, looking west. This must date from c.1816

Archaeology, 2019 by Keith Ray

- Plate 8.1 Snodhill castle, 2019: reconstruction of the castle at c.1100AD, based upon the earthworks and the excavations so far completed
8.2 Snodhill castle, 2019: remains of the doorway and spiral stair in the Keep
8.3 Snodhill castle, 2019: vertical photographic plot of north tower as exposed during excavation
8.4 Dorstone Hill, 2019: Trench 10 excavation of Neolithic causewayed ditch segments
8.5 Dorstone Hill, 2019: Trench 11 excavation across bank and ditch on south-east spur of the hill
8.6 Leintwardine Iron Age/Romano-British copper alloy toggle
8.7 Little Birch bronze strap end
8.8 Herefordshire Viking Hoard: gold finger-ring
8.9 Herefordshire Viking Hoard: Coins issued jointly by Alfred of Wessex and Ceolwulf II of Mercia
8.10 Wellington Quarry, 2019: stone dumped in a palaeo-channel to create a ford, probably in the Romano-British period
8.11 Wellington Quarry, 2019: inhumation burial accompanied by a wooden staff; placed in the top of a pit in one of two pit alignments, probably in the late pre-Roman Iron Age

Botany, 2019 by Peter Garner

- Plate 9.1 Large-leaved lime Tilia platyphyllos
9.2 Quercus x rosacea

Buildings, 2019 by Duncan James

- Plate 10.1 The lower two hammer beams of the unorthodox triple hammer-beam roof in Brampton Bryan church
10.2 The 17th-century decorated top to one of the supporting pillars in Brampton Bryan church
10.3 Looking west into the tower of Cradley church showing the timber framing on the north side
10.4 Cradley church, behind the south frame showing that the two north-south beams don't engage with the wall of the tower

- 10.5 Duppa's Almshouse (Duppa Cottages), Bridge Street, Pembridge, looking north
- 10.6 The rear elevation of the Duppa Cottages range showing the three large chimney stacks
- 10.7 Wormbridge Court Farmhouse seen from the north

Geology, 2019 by Moira Jenkins

- Plate 11.1 Volunteers receiving training from Prof. Ian Fairchild and Beth Andrews by the side of a kettle-hole pond
- 11.2 Coring which successfully collected peat from an area near a pond
- 11.3a A core containing peat at the base
- 11.3b A specimen of peat collected
- 11.4a Walkers on the ridge of the Malvern Hills, part of the Geopark Way
- 11.4b A Malvern U3A group walking on Oyster Hill
- 11.5 Coppet Hill, Goodrich: Upper Devonian Quartz Conglomerate crag
- 11.6 Avon Group formerly Lower Limestone Shales, showing a channel formed in shallow water
- 11.7 Wormbridge Court Farmhouse seen from the north
- 11.8 Layer with haematite coating at boundary between Precambrian and Silurian, Gullet Top Quarry
- 11.9 Gullet Quarry Specimen
- 11.10 Gullet Quarry Specimen (alternate view)
- 11.11 Mud clasts were torn from stream bed; some still in place, some weathered out because mudstone is more easily eroded
- 11.12 Unsorted sandstone with pebbles
- 11.13 Coarse sandstone with red areas which have been oxidised and pale areas which have been reduced
- 11.14 Brownstones Formation with reduction spheroids
- 11.15 Onion skin weathering
- 11.16 Fossil coral, Little Doward
- 11.17 Fossil coral, Little Doward
- 11.18 Barite crystals
- 11.19 Barite and Limonite
- 11.20 Barite and Manganese Oxide
- 11.21 Bright colours of iron oxides

Mycology, 2019 by Jo Weightman

- Plate 12.1 Nectria punicea var. ilicis shown emerging in tight clusters through the bark of a live holly at Docklow
- 12.2 Lepiota lilacea. A collected specimen showing the scaly cap and lilaceous pink tinge of the underlying flesh
- 12.3 Lepiota lilacea. A collected specimen showing the brown underside of the ring
- 12.4 Leucocoprinus birnbaumii growing in a plant pot kept in the house
- 12.5 The Scarlet Berry Fungus Paurocotylis pila in habitat, Bishops Castle, Shropshire
- 12.6 Paurocotylis pila, a collected specimen showing the white flesh inside
- 12.7 Podoscypha multizonata. A characteristic large rosette. Croft Castle 2015
- 12.8 Geopora sumneriana. The typical half-submerged fruitbodies growing under cedar in March in a garden in Ross-on-Wye

Ornithology, 2019 by Rachel Jenkins

Plate	13.1	Goosander
	13.2	Shelduck family
	13.3	Shelduck
	13.4	Water rail
	13.5	Dipper
	13.6	Whooper swan
	13.7	Pied Flycatcher eggs

LIST OF FIGURES

		Page
The Club Oak by Tom Wall
Figure	1	The Club Oak in March 1871 from the Transactions (TWNFC) for 1870, opp.p.314	39
	2	The Club Oak in April 1932, TWNFC opp. p.182	39
	3	Diameters and ages of oak trees in the Lower Park at Moccas, 1997, showing estimated germination dates	41
	4	The Wellingtonia as recorded in the Transactions for 1931, opp. p.108	42
	5	The Knoll Oak from the 1932 Transactions opp. p.182	45
Table	1	Girths and heights of The Club Oak 1870-1998	38
	2	Girths and heights of the Wellingtonia	42
100 years ago by Howard Tomlinson
Figure	1	The Fort-Reviver advert from the Hereford Times , March 1919	49
	2	'The Deliverer' from Punch , 8 October 1919	51
	3	The service at the temporary cenotaph in High Town in September 1919	52
	4	The flowers around the temporary cenotaph in High Town in 1919	53
	5	The cenotaph was replaced in 1922 by the war memorial in front of the Shire Hall	53
	6	The power station in Widemarsh Street as seen from the cattle market	56
	7	The power station frontage as seen from Widemarsh Street	56
	8	Plan of Hereford in March 1912 by E.G. Davies	58
	9	Houses under construction on Ross Road	59
Cider making in eastern Herefordshire by Edward Peters
Figure	1	Treduchan Farm, Llangarren parish, granary over cider mill	65
	2	Copley Farm, Cradley, cider mill attached to house; rear hop kiln erected later	66
	3	Mill, Stoney Villa, Cradley	67
	4	Mill, Upper Walton, Much Cradley	67
	5	Cider press, Stoney Villa, Cradley	68
	6	Cider press in a common settlement cottage, Coppet Hill, Goodrich	69
	7	An early doorway altered to allow large barrels through, The Old Court House, Goodrich	69
	8	Scratter at Bosbury Cider Festival, 2006	69
Bredwardine Bridge by John C. Eisel
Figure	1	Aquatint of Bredwardine Bridge, with Bredwardine Church beyond, published by Ireland in Picturesque Views on the River Wye (1797)	73
	2	A charming Edwardian photograph of Bredwardine Bridge, looking across from the east bank	77
	3	Bredwardine Bridge before restoration by G.H. Jack in the early 1920s	82
	4	Bredwardine Bridge after restoration: a photograph published in the volume of the Transactions for 1924-6	83

	Page
An unrecorded tollhouse by Harley Thomas
Figure 1	The 1841 Lingen title map with Old Shop top left. The building lies at the pointed end of plot 330 88
The decline and fall of Butchers' Row, Hereford by John C. Eisel
Figure 1	Part of Isaac Taylor's 1757 map of Hereford 109
2	Detail from Taylor's 1757 map, showing the area of Butchers' Row 109
3	The centre part of Cole's map of 1806 showing Cooken Row 110
4	Cole's map revised to show the location of the final three houses which were demolished in the 1830s 110
5	A fine lithograph of Caswell's shop, published shortly after its demolition in 1837 116
6	Wood's Survey of 1836 when the remaining two houses in the centre of High Town were still standing 118
7	The Old House in 1863, towards the end of the occupation by John Roberts 119
Buildings, 2019 by Duncan James
Figure 1	A plan of Cradley church tower showing the layout of the two timber frames 152
2	The two timber frames within Cradley church tower. 152
3	Cradley church showing ritual burn marks on the north face of the south frame. 153
4	Cradley church, a Marian mark cut into the south frame 153
5	Duppa Cottages: a ground plan showing the primary layout as six units 155
6	Duppa Cottages: a ground plan showing the inserted crossframes and minor alterations to increase the size of the individual units 155
7	Duppa Cottages: a plan showing the two separate cross-wings brought to the site to form the almshouse range 155
8	Duppa Cottages: the jettied north elevation of the range showing the blocked window openings 156
9	Duppa Cottages: a reconstruction drawing of the jettied north elevation showing the likely form of the two planted-on windows 156
10	Duppa Cottages: bay 2 looking north showing the intermediate roof truss between bays 1 and 2 157
11	Duppa Cottages: bay 2 looking south to truss T3 with its vee-struts and massive cambered tiebeam 157
12	Duppa Cottages: bay 7 looking north at the inserted 17th-century crossframe on the ground floor 158
13	Duppa Cottages: bay 7 looking east showing one half of a curved doorhead related to the former use of the cross-wing in association with a hall range 158

14	Duppa Cottages: the jettied south end of the range with 17th-century framing inserted below the jetty	159
15	Duppa Cottages: the south end gable showing the clasped purlins in truss T8	159
16a	Wormbridge Court Farmhouse showing it surrounded by later structures	160
16b	A map to indicate the site of the lost Wormbridge House in relation to the coach house and barn	160
17	A ground plan of the lost Wormbridge House, re-drawn from a plan dated 1742 held in the British Museum	161
18	The south elevation of Wormbridge House in 1742	161
19	Ground plan of the Wormbridge Court coach house showing the primary layout of the main range with the roof truss positions T1-T6	162
20	A reconstruction drawing of the coach house building before its conversion to domestic use.	163
21	One of the surviving window grilles high in the rear wall of bays 1 and 2	163
22	Wormbridge coach house: the tall dove house at the rear of the site	164
23	Wormbridge coach house: one of the roof trusses over the main range showing the way in which the tiebeam has been cut and now abuts a sling brace arrangement	164
24	A ground plan of Wormbridge Court Farm illustrating the present layout to show the second and subsequent phases of construction	164
25	Wormbridge Court Farm: The two front windows that now occupy the site of the carriage doorways	165
26	Wormbridge Court Farm: Room 4, looking north-east at the inserted chimneystack and cupboards	165
27	Wormbridge Court Farm: The north-east end of the building showing the inserted gable and chimneystack	166

Geology, 2019 by Moira Jenkins

Figure 1	Haugh Wood Formation exposed in cliff by Pentaloe Brook	171
2	Woolhope Limestone	172
3	Woolhope Club members searching for graptolites in Mid Wales	173
4	The Little Doward limestone pavement site before clearance	175
5	Part of the front edge of the limestone pavement after clearance	176
6	Eroded surface of limestone pavement which has been exposed for many years	176
7	A section of freshly exposed limestone pavement with a wide gryke, formerly hidden under a layer of soil	177